Heritage Day Pride!

Our school came alive with colour, rhythm and pride as we joyously celebrated Heritage Day – a special occasion honouring the rich cultural diversity that makes South Africa so uniquely beautiful! It was a day steeped in respect for our country's multifaceted history, brought to life through style, and tradition,

The event saw our dedicated teachers and staff stepping out in stunning traditional attire – each garment a heartfelt tribute to the vibrant cultures that weave our nation's rich heritage fabric. Every piece of clothing spoke volumes of respect and appreciation for the traditions that shape us.

Learners stole the show with amazing traditional dances (Indlamu and more) in vibrant regalia, celebrating our cultural mosaic. The day ended with staff enjoying African delights compliments of a bring-and-share.

It was a day of cultural pride, joy, connection – celebrating South Africa's beautiful diversity.

Spring Fiesta!

Our school buzzed with infectious energy on 3 October as teachers and staff celebrated Spring Day in high spirits! It was a day brimming with good cheers, laughter, and camaraderie – a joyful break that brought everyone together.

Participants were divided into vibrant teams, each sporting a distinctive colour and tasked with specific responsibilities that added to the thrill. The fun was multifaceted as teams dove into an exciting array of games – from brain-teasing general quizzes that tested quick wit to action-packed challenges assessing agility and physical strength.

Laughter echoed, competitiveness sparked, and bonds strengthened as colleagues showcased their skills and supported one another through the lively activities. Spring Day was a refreshing reminder of the power of teamwork and shared joy in building a warm school community.

It was a wonderful celebration – leaving everyone with big smiles and memories to treasure!
